

National Character Education Conference

⊕ THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND
FOUNDATION FOR EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

The Burlington Hotel, Birmingham
9.30am – 3.15pm, Wednesday 20th September 2017

Following the publication of ‘The Fruit of the Spirit’ report, The Church of England Foundation for Educational Leadership has been working in partnership with The Jubilee Centre in leading a series of four regional conferences through 2016/17 in Exeter, Nottingham, Newcastle and Cambridge.

These conferences have brought together outstanding regional case studies of the Leadership of Character Education from primary and secondary contexts, featuring leaders from both Church of England and Community School settings.

In September, the Foundation will publish a new report into the Leadership of Character Education, building on the Church of England’s Vision for Education, Deeply Christian, Serving the Common Good.

This conference will feature

- Leadership of Character Education’ Report Launch.
- National showcasing of 20 case studies of the Leadership of Character Education, drawn from primary and secondary contexts across the UK.
- Panel debates and national networking opportunities.
